CURRENT EVENTS

A Chill Is In The Air!

Another busy, but awesome week in Kindergarten! ☺ We worked hard on testing some of our 1st quarter skills...I can't believe we are already starting our 2nd quarter on Tuesday. Please remember conferences are on Tuesday, October 22 and Thursday, October 24 from 3-7 p.m. I can't wait to show you your child's hard work so far!

We also have begun learning about our new character word, which is trustworthiness. Telling the truth can be difficult but not telling the truth just brings more trouble. Please help reinforce this at home too.

NEXT WEEK: Our Books will be My Tt Book and We Like

Sight Word: like

Review: I, can, the, we, see, a, like

Math-We began chapter 2-Comparing numbers to 10. After this chapter is complete, your child should be able to identify numbers to 10 and write to 10. Many students can write numbers beyond 10 at this point.

50's Day

On Friday, October 25th it's our 50th day of school. To celebrate this day, I am inviting students to dress in 50's attire--poodle skirts, bobby socks, rolled up jeans, white T-shirts, or leather jackets. The students may come to school wearing their outfits.

We will have a 50's sock hop in the gym to celebrate the 50th day of school. During our time in the gym we will dance, limbo and hula hoop.

Please do not purchase anything if you don't already have something. Just have your child roll his/her jeans and wear a white t-shirt. We are looking forward to this day of celebration.

I'll also be sending home a note for donations. We will have a bubble blowing contest and root beer floats. Thank you in advance for making this day a special one.

Happy Birthday!

Jack-October 17

Ben-October 17

THANK YOU!!

Thank you to the families who donated a pumpkin for our pumpkin carving center. The kids had a blast.

Word of the Month: Trustworthiness
Tell the truth. Return things you borrow.
