CURRENT EVENTS

"It's Still Warm Out"

The first day of fall will come to greet us this weekend but the warm weather that is holding on feels like summer is still here. That won't stop us learning about fun fall activities! We learned this week that another name for fall is Autumn.

Be sure to check out our projects at Open House on Thursday evening. Next week we will continue working with apples along with starting fall activities. Have a great weekend!

JUST A COUPLE OF REMINDERS

* Students should use their "pointing finger" to practice reading books at home.

* Students should complete ALL of their homework by themselves – parents can give verbal help, use a highlighter, and demonstrate on another piece of paper – but the students need to complete their own work!

* HAVE YOUR CHILD WRITE THEIR OWN NAME ON ALL PAPERS! Please have them focus on only Capital for 1st letter and all other letters lowercase!

Our activities included:

Sight Words: I, can, the Centers:

- *Counting objects to 10-Write around the room
- *Apple Science-Weighing objects heavier or lighter
- *Making an Apple Art Project
- *Ants on the letter A

Our Books for next week will be:

My Ss book and I See. Please keep these in your child's folder everyday.

Math: We are still working on Chapter 1-writing numbers 0-5.

Our Character Education Word of the Month:
Self-Discipline

STAR OF THE WEEK:

I sent home our calendars for Star of the Week through December. I tried to make your child's special week around his/her birthday. Summer birthdays will be spread out during the year. So far our activities for Star of the week will include:

Monday-Bring your STAR Poster

Tuesday- Mrs. Wooten will eat lunch with the Star student.

Wednesday- Bring a snack for the class (19 students)

Thursday- Celebrity Reader Day

*A guest can come to our class at 2:10 to read 2 books to the class.

Friday-Star student can sit at Mrs. Wooten's Desk.

Open House Thursday 5-6pm!

Come enjoy dinner on us Thursday, while having your child show you all the AWESOME things we have and do at Bethalto East!
